

Langley Gymnastics Foundation Job Posting

Head Coach - Recreational Program

Are you looking for a full-time position at a state-of-the-art gymnastics club in beautiful British Columbia? Are you a leader who loves working with other coaches in a collaborative environment? Do you have excellent communication skills with an energetic attitude to work in a positive and fast-paced setting? We need you!

Langley Gymnastics Foundation is a growing, non-profit club that is passionate about creating a love for the sport in people of all ages. Our club seeks a goal-driven individual who loves to help individuals develop both their physical and mental skills while ensuring a safe and positive environment. The ideal candidate knows how to develop or follow a recreational gymnastics program that is centered on skill development and fun!

Requirements:

- Minimum of NCCP Comp 1 Artistic certified
- Minimum of NCCP Trampoline Level 2 certified
- Respect in Sport and Making Ethical Decisions certificate
- Criminal Record Check with vulnerable sector search (to be completed by the selected applicant before hiring)
- Minimum of 5 years gymnastics coaching experience
- A strong technical base for MAG, WAG, and Trampoline Gymnastics
- Experience with scheduling & implementing and developing up-to-date gymnastics programming
- Strong desire to continue their gymnastics education both technically and theoretically
- Flexible schedule (evenings and weekends)
- Basic computer skills
- Team player & organized

We are looking for someone to join our team of vibrant coaches who:

- Is well rounded with excellent communication skills
- Has a passion to expand and develop our recreational program through positive leadership and commitment
- Has the ability to collaborate with other head coaches to create a club that is cohesive through all programs
- Can observe, evaluate, and mentor coaches in the gym
- Has the ability to continuously evaluate the recreational program and the athletes
- Encourage and recruit new coaches to join the CIT program
- Can build positive relationships with all athletes, parents, and coaches
- Is well-versed and up to date on all rules set out by Gymnastics BC
- Has the ability to abide by all Covid-19 protocols

Please send your resume to chair@langleygymnastics.ca

Application deadline: April 30th, 2021